Dressage at Devon Announces 35th Anniversary

Dressage at Devon will hold its 35th Anniversary show September 28 through October 3, 2010. In order to celebrate this momentous occasion, DAD will be eliminating the minimum qualifying scores in the performance division. Horse and rider combinations will still need to submit scores for the class they wish to enter and the scores will be ranked with the time slots going to the combinations who submit the highest scores until the class is filled.
